

In the next couple of weeks you will begin to hear more about PARCC scores. We expect to have the PARCC individual score reports sent home to you during the week of December 14th. However before we send home the reports we would like to provide you with some useful links to familiarize yourself with the look of the reports, help you understand how to read the report, and some other helpful links from the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) as well as the Partnership for Assessment of Readiness for College and Careers (PARCC).

Websites:

PARCC Parent Resources - <http://www.parcconline.org/resources/parent-resources>
 NJDOE Understanding PARCC site - <http://www.nj.gov/education/highlights/parcc.htm>

Link #1 - NJDOE PARCC FAQs

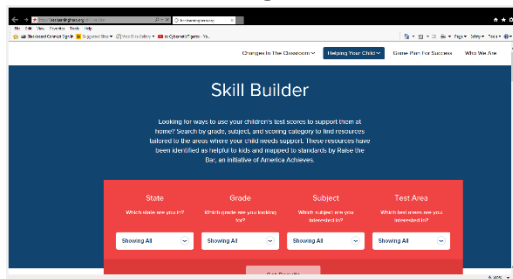

This is a site developed by the New Jersey Department of Education that answers questions specific to New Jersey about year two of PARCC testing. Click here to visit the link

Link #2 – PARCC - Understanding the Score Video

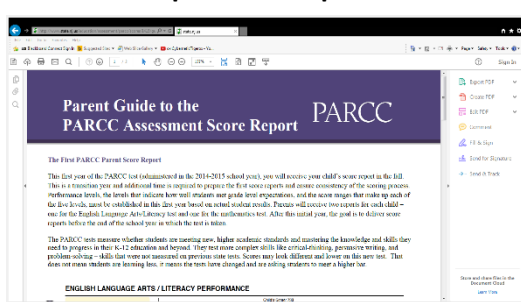

This is a video from the website www.understandthescore.org where three educators explain the new PARCC score reports, what parents should expect and how they can support their students. WATCH THE VIDEO

Link #3 – Skill Building Website

Be A Learning Hero – Skill building website that addresses specific learning skills related to Common Core. Click here to visit the link

Link #4 – Sample Score Report

This is a link to a sample score report with specific explanations for each section of the score report. Click here to visit link